Fashion Square To Open

Grand opening of 12 new stores which comprise Bullock's Fashion Square Del Amo is scheduled Monday, according to Howard B. Weichsel, Fashion Square manager.

The 12 new stores bring to 15 the number of businesses now open at the center and a 16th store, I. Magnin, will open later this year, Weichsel said.

New stores include: Alpert's Shoe Store, offering both ladies' and men's shoes and featuring selected gift items and fashion lines. The store will handle Red Cross shoes, Socialites, Cobies, and Florsheim shoes.

Bell's Inc., a retail gift shop featuring china, glassware, housewares, and decorative accessories. Bell's Inc. is the distributor for Rosenthal china in the 11 Western states.

Country Club Fashions, which will carry a complete line of exclusive ladies' fashions "for the individualist."

Chandler's Shoe Store, featuring Chandler's "French Room" originals and matching handbags and accessories.

C. H. Baker, which, according to Weichsel, will feature shoes "for swinging sophisticates and the fun-loving, vibrant young people."

Draper's, offering a complete line of ladies' fashions, including furs, imported and domestic knits, suits and dresses. A special feature of Draper's is the store's half-size department.

Fields, the newest store in a chain which specializes in colorful high fashion cloths for young Californians.

Gentry Ltd., featuring fashions and accessories for the young executive and collegial.

Slavick's, offering fine jewelry. The firm was established in 1917.

Ranchito Grill, located on the Plaza and designed specifically to meet the needs of shoppers.

The Music Man, which will feature musical instruments, television, hi-fi, stereo, components, organs, records, and sheet music.

Polka Dot, featuring career girl fashions, including dresses, coats, suits, knits, sportswear and lingerie by name brand manufacturers.

Already open in the Fashion Square Del Amo are Desmonds, Bullocks Del Amo, and the Crocker-Citizens National Bank's Del Amo office.

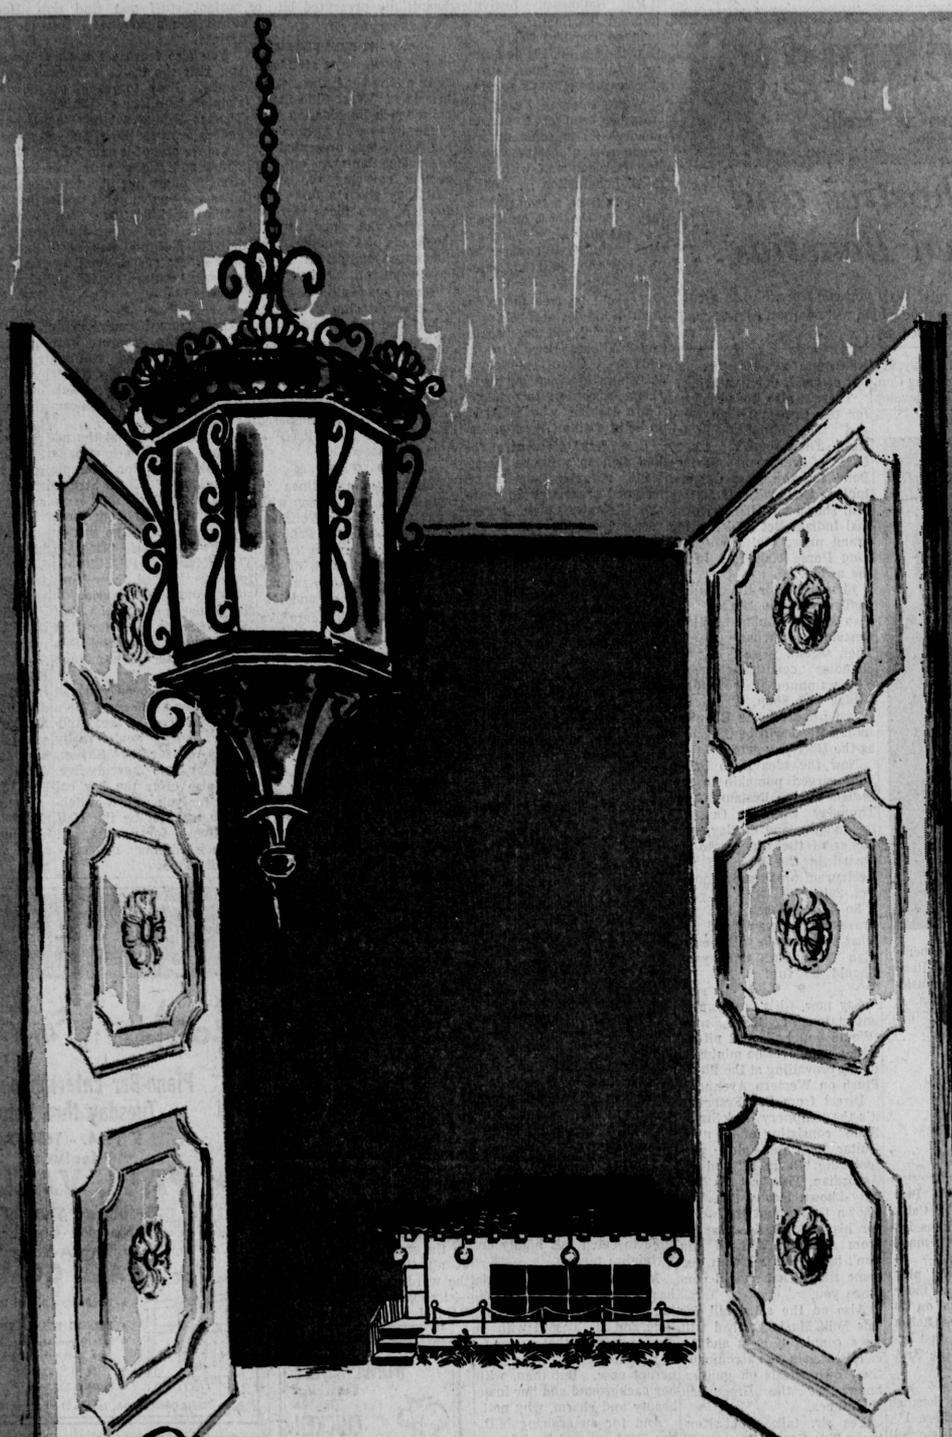

The 12 new stores are located on the Plaza between the four-story Bullock's store and Desmonds'.

Fashion Square Del Amo also includes a community room which will be available to civic and social groups throughout the year.

Brown Train Will Stop In Torrance

Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, seeking his third term as California's chief executive, will make a whistle stop in Torrance Saturday.

Brown, traveling by the "Pat Brown Progress Express," will speak from the platform of a train at Carson and Madrid streets at 11:10 a.m. during a 10-community railway tour of Los Angeles County.

Our doors open wide...
